Title	Day	Description
Autumn: Disintegration		A group of survivors look down on the dead from a balcony half way up a block of flats
Autumn: Aftermath		The dead surround the ruin of a castle which is built on top of a hill. A helicopter flies overhead
Gary 'Tuggie' Keele	1	The pilot of a small tug plane takes evasive action as gliders start falling out of the skies around him
Peter Guest	1	A middle-aged man climbs over the roofs of hundreds of crashed cars which are blocking a tunnel
Philip Evans	1	A scrawny, bewildered looking man cycles into the centre of a small village filled with corpses
Philip Evans	3	Tries to persuade his dead mother to lie down
Beginning to Disintegrate	1	A group of three survivors watch in disbelief as a bus drives towards them along a street filled with bodies
Webb	1	A young man hides in a burger bar, feeding his face and staring outside as the rest of the world died
Innocence	3	An 8 year old boy is alone in his house and he's scared. By torchlight he peers out from under a table
Penelope Street	5	A paralysed woman sits helpless in her wheelchair as the dead swarm around her. Outside, the world is burning
The Human Condition	7	A coach drives along a city street, crashing through wreckage and churning corpses up into the air
Jackson	7	A single survivor, wearing full protective gear and carrying a rucksack filled with supplies, watches the dead from inside an empty building
Kate James	9	A middle-aged woman sits alone in a children's playground at dusk. All around her, the dead are approaching through the mist
The Human Condition	17	A group of survivors fight their way out through an apartment block lobby filled with surging corpses
Kilgore	23	Soldiers wearing full protective gear attempt to stem the flow of walking corpses from an office building they've just broken into
Skin	23	A disaffected youth traps the corpses of everyone he hates in his old school gym
Annie Nelson	38	An old lady hides in the cellar of her house as corpses fill the rooms above
